House of Representatives U.S.
Washington D.C. Feb 2nd 1863.

To the President:

In view of the early adjournment of Congress, & my inability to see you personally, in account of your late illness I take this method of addressing you in a letter in which I put a few words.

You will find on file in the War Dept, several communications recommending Col Wm J. Harvey of Maine as a suitable person to be appointed Judge of one of the Military Courts. These recommendations were offered by Senator Henry & May, & of Sen. Mitchell of Texas - Bennett of Ky - & several of others, & by Messrs. Pugh, Chambers, the Secretary of War, Mr. Stanton, Borchgrevink & others, all of whom are personally acquainted with Col Harvey & his connection with the Southern Movement.

Col Harvey was a member of the United States Congress at the time when the Southern States were one by one seceding from the Union, & took a bold & active part in behalf of the Southern Movement. He went home to Tennessee from that Congress, & thence his whole influence in behalf of the movement in that State, & about large amounts of money in raising troops for the Southern Army, and was chosen chief of a company of Infantry, which he served in various.

He & his regiment, were captured by the enemy, and he was confined in northern prison for many months,

When he returned with his regiment, many companies of companies from different States, and Alabama Mississippi & Louisiana. His regiment was a very common. His home & property in Memphis now in the hands of the enemy, are being used by them for their own purposes. He is thus thrown out of employment, with his family entirely dependent on him for support.

Col Allen is over 40 years of age, is a college by profession & was in the employment of a railroad company, before the war.

His private & public character is without a stain and his qualifications for the service of the best kind.

I can highly refer you to every man who has been in the old Congress of the United States, & to all the members of the Congress, in support of the above statements.

Col. Allen is capable and worthy & should

It is good, first to afford him the government and not the chance of a long, painful, narrow

Hon Mr. S. Reagan

My dear Sir

When I had the pleasure of seeing you at Richmond some weeks ago I believe I told you how unfortunate I had been in my military matters, that on my return from Federal captivity my regiment having been con-posed of companies from different states, - the companies by order of the commanding generals were order sent to make full regiment in their respective states and the rest, by that means destroyed and I left without a command and discharged the service. The best that I could do at the war office when I was there was the offer of a commission to raise another Regiment provided I would confine myself in doing so to Mississippi or Ky, which I declined, and am now to do something - indeed I must do something - as I. my pecuniary resources are wholly cut off - with an expensive family in a more expensive country - having brought them here for safety.

If I had known it in time I think I might have gotten a position on one of the new courts created for the army by Congress - but I did not until they were filled. I see that a resolution has passed the Senate and perhaps the House instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the necessity of enlarging the courts, to make courts for Departments of the army consisting of 40 troops, and an army corps which seemed not to be provided for in the original act.

my object in troubling you with this letter which I trust you will pardon is to bespeak your kind influence with the Secy of War in securing for me such position, if opportunity presents, I have written to some of my friends through Carrington at Kansas City about it, and could procure if necessary any sort of recommendation.

Any thing you may be pleased to do in the premises my sensitive will be most highly appreciative by

Yours sincerely

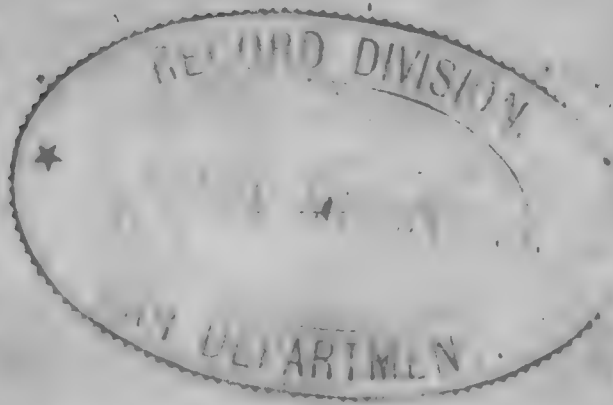

H. J. Hall

P.S. I trust I will be pardoned for saying that it does seem a little hard that I should expend so much time & money to set up the right as I did - that it should be so - should be so brief and attached to be served to the Secretary of War.

I would respectfully call attention to the claims of Lieut. Col. W. T. Avery, to an appointment as a member of one of the Military Courts.

He was Lieut. Colonel of the 1st Ala. Tenn. & Miss Regt., and served for a short time under my command, on the Miss. River in the spring of '62. I formed a very favorable opinion of Col. Avery's efficiency & gallantry. He was captured, with his Regt. at Island No. During his imprisonment, his Regt. — being composed of troops from three different States — was disbanded, which threw him out of position. This would seem to entitle him to some compensation.

He is a man of character & standing in the city where he resided before the war (Memphis T.), represented that district in the Federal Congress, & is a lawyer of ability. I would judge him to be fully competent for the position sought — worthy of appointment as to personal character, and entitled to consideration from the circumstances stated above.

Dear Mr. W. W. Smith,

That the department cannot give a commission to any officer of militia it is informed by military rules that the commissioning of an officer has been legally completed and is genuine.

Notwithstanding if the commissions of this regiment ~~have~~ ^{were} furnished in accordance with law books the rules should have been sent to the Kent commissioner in Alabama for the organization of the reserves & the formation of this department by him. Directions would have been given for the organization of the companies into regiments & the appointment of officers. The department must have nothing before which to base its action but the statements of this letter which it would be contrary to all rule to comply with the request made.

Very truly, will be at the Regiment June 22 1863.

I wish to see the Secretary of War and inform him of the necessity for action - Send me authority to take command of the Regiment. Immediately - I shall make them aware of the necessity of this point in the city, and the danger to it. I will forward the necessary as soon as the proper one can be obtained. At the present emergency we require action - I have the 1st Company organized and only wait an order from the Secretary to

Colonel:

Permit me to introduce to your official acquaintance Major Joseph Barbire, late of the 4th Confederate Regiment. I say "official" acquaintance, not from any intention as to Major Barbire's entire worthiness to be presented to any gentleman in any other sense, but because it is the only capacity in which I can claim any right to present him to you.

Major Barbire has intimated to me his intention, in a certain contingency, to apply for assignment to duty in the Conscription Service. In that case, I take pleasure in recommending him, from personal knowledge and from other sources of information, as an experienced soldier and a gentleman of varied & extensive accomplishments. He has already served his country in responsible & important positions, both civil & military, at home & abroad, and, as I have reason to believe, with credit & fidelity.

I am, Colonel,

Most respectfully,

Letters Received
A & I G O,

Adj. Camp of Instruction, Galladys, Ala.

26 Dec. 1862.

General:

The duties of my command are becoming more arduous & important, on account of internal disturbances in the adjacent country and other causes. There is no officer with me (other than the staff officers) above the rank of lieutenant.

I therefore, with his own consent, respectfully request that Major Joseph Barbier, of the 4th Confederate Regiment, (which has been distributed by Lieut. Gen. Pemberton among different corps from the several States from which it was drawn,) be assigned to duty here, as second in command, subject to my order.

Very respectfully

Yours Obedt. Servant

The President —

Sir:

A Bill is now pending in the Congress, to be entitled An act to authorize the President of the Confederate States to institute a commission for the trial and punishment of Offences in the armies of the Confederate States.

It is believed that the proposed measure will probably become a law, and in such event, we would be respectfully to recommend Pres.
Jefferson Davis to transmit, at once, some deemed necessary to be attached to such commission, in such capacity as it may please the Government to appoint.

24 His Excellency
Jefferson Davis
President

Confederate States of America
Hon Sir

In 1857. I Commenced a Series of articles on the Subject of the Connection (Commercially) between the Continent of Europe and the Southern States of the then United States of America, By which I hoped to establish a balance of trade, thence a balance of interest, whose resolution would be a balance of political power, until the Harpers Ferry raid my articles passed unnoticed, they then attracted some attention, and continued to do so, until the Legislature of my State, "Tennessee" took the subject in hand, and I was appointed Commissioner to Europe to attempt the establishment of a direct connection between the Continent of Europe and the South.

I presented the Subject to King Leopold, the Duke of Brabant, and the Minister of Foreign Affairs, of Belgium whose appreciation of my mission and its results, is exhibited in a letter from the King, (Leopold) through the Baron D'Urville, on his receipt of my pamphlet on the Subject in French - At the solicitation of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Brussels, I visited the factories on the French Prussian and Holland frontier some two hundred and fifty - loaded a vessel at Antwerp - with goods of my own selection shipped them to Savannah, thence to a Fair at Mobile Ala and think I established the first tangible effort of direct trade - in the South - my efforts were accepted in an agreeable manner by the Chamber of Commerce, whose thanks I recd.

Dear Sir

Yours of 6th C. R. D.

Kindly accept my apology for carelessly permitting my letter of November 30th to go to you without being signed, this being entirely an unintentional discourtesy on my part, as I had every reason for signing and none for not so doing.

The representative from our old district, Mr. Will Collier, has known me and of me for quite a long time and I feel sure would vouch along this line for me.

It is very much to my pleasure and satisfaction to have your letter, for which I am most grateful and I hope you will overlook my negligence.

Yours truly
